

Stephen Rosenholtz

April 15, 1948— September 05 2025

"A man of integrity, who can find? His worth surpasses fine gold. The heart of his friends and students trusted in him, and they flourished under his care. He provided care faithfully and protected them all the days of their lives, and they were honored. He opened his hand to the needy and was generous to the poor. He was clothed with strength and honor and faced each challenge with courage. He spoke with wisdom and his instruction was kind. He led his household well and was never lazy in his work. His children called him blessed; his friends also praised him. Many sons have acted with honor, yet he equaled them all. Wealth fades and strength fails, but a man who fears God shall be praised. Give him recognition for his works; let his deeds bring him honor in the gates."

We remember him now; he lives in our hearts;
He is an abiding blessing that moves us to live
As he wished to live in his best moments.

On Eagle's Wings

And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn,
Make you shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His Hand.

Happy in having lived 77 years and following his dreams and accomplishing many, he was active with Tai Chi and Feldenkrais Practice till the very end: coherent and thinking of friends and family throughout his years.

In the last days softly singing

an old Woody Guthrie song,

“So long, it’s been good to know you”.
